

hotels • lodges • restaurants • shops • spas

eco chic

Environmental awareness and social responsibility has never been more chic and accessible—and with a mere six degrees away from irrevocable climate change—never more crucial. More than ever before, the world's most renowned architects, designers, chefs and hoteliers are banding together to create a way of life that is both fashionable, yet tread lightly on the planet.

Eco Chic unearths the latest and most exciting developments the Green Movement has to offer, touching on gourmet eco cuisine, sustainable fashion, eco architecture and green experiential travel, alongside daily improvements one can practise as part of an environmentally-friendly lifestyle. With ecological awareness fast becoming an integral aspect of our existence, Eco Chic will be the quintessential guide to sophisticates aspiring to live life both responsibly, and with style.